

Sing Out for Wildlife

OBJECTIVE

Students will sing a song about saving endangered wildlife.

MATERIALS

- copies of song (if needed)

ACTION

1. Lead students through song with hand movements.
2. After singing song, discuss with students how recycling and sharing information with their friends and families can help save endangered species. By recycling, we use less natural resources and fewer habitats are destroyed. By sharing information we get more people involved in caring – the more we work together, the more successful our efforts to conserving wildlife.

If You're Going To Help Save Wildlife

(sung to the tune of "If You're Happy and You Know It")

If you're going to help save wildlife,
clap your hands. (clap hands twice)

If you're going to help save wildlife,
clap your hands. (clap hands twice)

We can save a lot of wildlife,
If we all just do our part.

If you're going to help save wildlife,
clap your hands. (clap hands twice)

If you're going to recycle, stomp
your feet. (stomp feet twice)

If you're going to recycle, stomp
your feet. (stomp feet twice)

If you're going to recycle,
We can use it all again,

If you're going to recycle, stomp
your feet. (stomp feet twice)

If you want to save sea turtles, wave
your flippers. (flap arms like flippers)

If you want to save sea turtles, wave
your flippers. (flap arms like flippers)

If you want to save sea turtles,
Don't throw plastic in the sea.

The
dusky seaside sparrow became extinct in 1987.

If you want to save sea turtles,
wave your flippers.
(flap arms like flippers)

If you want to save gorillas, pound
your chest. (pound chest with flat palms)

If you want to save gorillas, pound
your chest. (pound chest with flat palms)

If you want to save gorillas,
Tell others about their plight.

If you want to save gorillas, pound
your chest. (pound chest with flat palms)

If you're going to tell your friends,
shout hooray. (shout hooray)

If you're going to tell your friends,
shout hooray. (shout hooray)

If you tell friends and family
They can help, just wait and see!

If you're going to tell your friends,
shout hooray. (shout hooray)
